

Painting of the Month and Show-and-Tell Guidelines

The first meeting of each month shall be reserved for Painting of the Month and Show-and-Tell.

Show and Tell

Members are encouraged to bring in any number of their two-dimensional artwork to share with other members.

Some (optional) things artists may want to discuss about their work:

- title
- reference used
- motivation, message, or objective
- major design considerations
- medium and any special methods or tools used
- how long it took to complete
- what they like and don't like about their work
- anything new learned doing the piece

Painting of the Month

Each painting entered must be:

- an original painting or drawing
- created during the previous 12 months
- the artist has not won the Painting of the Month in the previous 6 months
- ready and available to be hung for one month

Voting will be secret, and only the painting receiving the most votes will be announced. The winner will receive a ribbon. The winning painting will be hung in Coronado Center during the month, an article about the winning painting will be submitted to the Village Voice.
